2. As per Rule 224-A of Mysore Civil Services Rules, introduced in Government Notification No. FD 69 SRS 66, dated 10th October 1968 all service under Government whether temporary or permanent shall count for pension in respect of retirement or death while in service of Government servants on or after 1st September 1968.

3. In view of the provision made in Rule 224-A of Mysore Civil Services Rules a proposal to delegate to the Heads of Departments, the powers of counting temporary service for pension in respect of retirement or death while in service of non-gazetted Government servants prior to 1st September 1968 has been under consideration of Government.

ORDER No. FD 23 SRS 69, BANGALORE, DATED THE 1ST MARCH 1969.

After careful consideration, Government hereby authorise the Heads of Departments to sanction pension where admissible to temporary non-gazetted Government Servants who retired or died while in service prior to 1st September 1968, counting the continuous temporary service rendered in regular establishments under Government in relaxation of the provisions of Rule 224 of Mysore Civil Services Rules.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

U. B. RAMACHANDRA,
Special Officer (Pensions),
Finance Department.

Issues clarification re. the reckoning of Special Pay for determining the Dearness Allowance.

CIRCULAR.

No. FD 13 SRP (1) 69, BANGALORE, DATED THE 20TH FEBRUARY 1969.

After issue of Notification in No. FD 69 SRS 66, dated 10th October 1968 amending the definition of pay under Rule 8(32) of M.C.S.R.'s among others, some of the Heads of Departments are approaching Government for clarification whether Special Pay allowed to Stenographers, Typists, etc., can be taken into account while determining the rate of Dearness Allowance. It is hereby clarified for information of all those concerned that the Dearness Allowance is paid with reference to the Basic Pay as specified in Appendix-VI of M.F.C. and not 'Pay' as defined under Rule 8(32) of M.C.S.R's. As such, Special Pay sanctioned to such officials cannot be taken into account while determining the rate of Dearness Allowance.

P. V. REVADI,
Special Officer and Ex-Officio
Deputy Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.
